

CHICAGO OFFICE TECHNOLOGY GROUP ANNOUNCES SENIOR MANAGEMENT PROMOTIONS; MIKE RANALLO TO VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES EASTERN REGION

Bolingbrook, IL, June 2008. Chicago Office Technology Group today announced the promotion of Mike Ranallo to Vice President of Sales of the Eastern Region, overseeing both the Chicago Loop and Tinley Park sales offices.

Ranallo, who previously served as Branch Manager and Regional Manager of the Chicago Loop sales office, has more than 15 years experience in the document management industry. “Mike Ranallo has an outstanding track record for building solid teams and quickly identifying and taking advantage of emerging industry trends,” said Terry Dixon, President. “Under his leadership, the Chicago Loop office has grown to be one of the strongest sales forces in the industry.”

Ranallo has been instrumental in driving COTG to win Global Imaging Systems’ top honor for outstanding performance. COTG won the award in 2004, 2006 and 2007.

“We believe that Ranallo’s industry expertise, sales experience and commitment to customer success will help accelerate our strong momentum in the document management market and take the company to the next level of growth and profitability,” said Dixon.

Ranallo is one of two Vice Presidents that succeed Dixon, who led COTG for the previous 8 years. Dixon recently assumed the role of President and will continue to provide the leadership necessary to continue COTG’s success.

Ranallo earned his Bachelors of Science degree in Economics from Illinois State University in 1993. He was inducted as a Global Leader in 2005 for his vision and leadership in sales. Also in 2005, he earned top honors within GISX as Branch Sales Manager of the Year. His career has been characterized by a desire to win in the marketplace, building impressive teams and producing stellar growth in all areas.
